THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

APPEAL TO THE SUPREME COURT.

We learn that an important bill of complaint was filed to-day with the Supreme Court of the United States on the part of Mississippi against Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, and General E. O. C. Ord. It sets out with showing the status of Mississippi as part of Georgia, ceded in 1802 to the United States, by which it was agreed that the territory should become a State "on the same footing as the original States in all respects whatsoever." The ordinance of 1787 was also applied to it, except as to slavery; and that contained the provisions that "the inhabitants of said territory shall always be entitled to the writ of habeas corpus, and of a trial by jury;" and "no man shall be deprived of his liberty or property but by his peers and the law of the land." This was the compact.

In pursuance thereof, an enabling act was passed, by which the said provisions were made "irrevocable," "without the consent of the United States." And on December 10, 1817, Mississippi was admitted as a State, under "irrevocable" and "unalterable" compacts, of which it is claimed the court should enforce the performance. It is averred that Mississippi is, and has ever been, a State, with State constitution republican in form, and properly administered; that she acknowledges the Constitution as the supreme law, and claims her right to appeal to this Court. It is denied that it was ever possible for the people or the State, in its corporate capacity, to dissolve its connection with the United States, in view of the surrender of certain rights, and guaranties of the rights and privileges of a State; that any attempt so to do is a nullity, which the State has formally conceded; and further, that she cannot be expelled; nor is there any power to subject her to pains, penalties, and disabilities under the Constitution; and any disabilities imposed on citizens, except after jury trial, are contrary to the Constitution.

The State admits "that by the wrongful acts of part of her citizens, and the neglect of the Federal authorities to protect the loyal," her government became disorganized; but this is corrected by the people, who have reorganized a government, republican in form, which has secured her recognition as a State by Congress, the Executive, and, as is believed, by this court. Even if there were irregularities in these acts, they have been cured by the sovereign act of the people in voluntary assemblage.

The State showed her good faith in the election of Senators and Representatives, which have been excluded from Congress, though her people are compelled to pay taxes; and the remaining twenty-six States have passed an act, which is the special object of complaint, with a supplement, both being annexed to the bill. The preamble of the former affirms that there is no legal government there and in other Southern States, but the people, the only competent source of a State government, have organized and put one in operation.

These two acts annihilate the State, subordinate the civil to the military power, set a precedent for a military despotism which makes naught all the safeguards of liberty, and divides the South into military districts, where the will of a soldier is the law. On this entire point the language of the bill is very forcible. These acts, asserting the paramount authority of Congress to abolish or control the State governments, were passed by a two thirds vote over the Executive vetoes, and are in process of enforcement by the President as a "mere ministerial duty." We here give the language of the bill:

"Now, complainant avers and charges, that the execution of said acts, by enforcing them in the manner therein provided, will cause and produce immediate and irreparable mischief in the States to which it applies, as must be manifest to the Court, in this, that they are repugnant to the Federal Constitution, and violate the spirit, the purpose, and the object of the compacts between Georgia, Virginia and the United States; it will deprive the States of every attribute of State authority, and practically annihilate them as States, by converting them into subordinate dependencies; it will derange the whole system of internal or domestic affairs; it will annul their legislation, and subvert their whole judicial system, inasmuch as it declares the State government illegal; it may annul all contracts and titles to property made with reference to existing laws; it will deprive the people of their most sacred rights—their exemption from arrests save on evidence founded on affidavit, the right of the intervention of a grand jury, and the right of trial by jury—and establish arbitrary military powers on the ruins of their constitutional rights. It will produce a train of irreparable mischiefs that may not be corrected for years, as the Court will readily perceive, and they can only be prevented by a very speedy application of the restraining powers of this Court. But, above all, these acts, if maintained, establish a precedent by which Congress, composed of a majority of States, may, at pleasure, exclude any State, or any number of States, from the American Union."

The bill further alleges that many legal questions will arise under these acts, which must be declared unconstitutional, leading to innumerable suits and incalculable mischief, as well as a total disorganization and state of anarchy.

It furthermore avers that the bill is filed as a bill, and in order to prevent endless legislation, otherwise sure to ensue.

It declares this is done in good faith, and not from factious motives, but in the belief that these acts are not obligatory unless declared valid by the Court. But if so declared, they will be cheerfully obeyed; and as there is no redress for a State except through this court, it is prayed that "said Andrew Johnson, and his officers and agents, appointed for that purpose, and especially General E. O. C. Ord, above named, be perpetually enjoined and restrained from executing said acts, and that powers of injunction and subpœna be issued, directed to the parties aforesaid, with any other relief that the court may deem proper." It is signed by the counsel for complainant W. L. Sharkey and R. J. Walker.—National Intelligencer, Saturday.

WE OFFER TO THE PUBLIC THIS CELEbrated Oil, and in doing so we unhesitatingly pronounce it SUPERIOR TO ANY BURNING OIL IN USE. It is Non-Explosive. Free from Grease. It will not grease the sockets. It will not soil or grease the clothing. It is more brilliant than Gas. It produces a soft and beautiful light. It is not so trying to the eyes. It can be used in any Kerosene Lamp by adopting our LIGHT HOUSE OR BASCINET BURNERS.

It has been most favorably received, and pronounced by judges to be the

THE BEST AND MOST RELIABLE OIL now in the market; and in consequence of the many serious accidents arising from the EXPLOSION OF KEROSENE, this Oil is extensively known and used in preference.

We are now prepared to furnish the trade with this valuable Oil, and we solicit from the; public an examination and trial.

We have on hand a large stock of

LAMPS, BURNERS, CHIMNEYS, WICKS, &c.,

and can supply the trade on liberal terms.

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 8, 1867.

THE CHARLOTTE GUARDIAN.

This paper, which, heretofore, has exhibited some conservatism, has gone over to the Holdenites. In its last issue, it takes us to task for calling the meeting here a "Holdenite meeting," and thinks that we are captious, disposed to create opposition to reconstruction, &c. We desire, briefly, to set our cotemporary right.

We felt authorized to call it a Holdenite meeting, for the reason, first, that the scheme was gotten up in his office, by Mr. Holden, and those who have co-operated with him, most of whom voted for him for Governor twice, and are known to be committed to his policy. He and his particular friends manipulated and controlled its proceedings, while the views of better Union men in it were ignored.

Secondly, our chief objection to the meeting was that its chief actors and managers were disfranchised by the Reconstruction Acts, and, by consequence, could not be regarded by the Congress as the proper prime movers in the work of reconstruction. We preferred to see the movement inaugurated by men who had always been considered Union men and those who were not disfranchised. This position we took before and since the meeting. The Guardian must have known this. We did not object, and have not objected, to Mr. Holden and his friends co-operating and aiding in the work of reconstruction; but it did, and does, seem to us that better Union men than they ought to have led in this matter.

Third, We objected, because of the ridiculous attitude in which Mr. Holden and his friends placed themselves in that meeting, by ignoring all their past record, when they claimed to be such strong friends of the colored population, such lovers of the colored race, that they must out Herod-Herod and inaugurate a scheme of operations calculated to promote party feeling and political rancor, which should not exist. The action of such men strangely contrasts with the former treatment of some of them to their own slaves—putting them in irons, separating them from wives and children and sending them off for sale. It was a fine exhibit of consistency in men, of whom we are told there were eighteen, who had formerly been "negro traders." Most of them had become, though formerly war men themselves, bitter in their hostility to those who had favored the prosecution of the war, because, by that course they had lost their slaves. There can't be a doubt, on the mind of any honest man, that the chief reason why the Holdenites are so bitter against the prosecutors of the war is, that they wanted to stop it in order to save slavery—to prevent its abolition; whereas slavery was doomed before the war actually commenced. It is now beyond a doubt, that slavery originated and continued the war. It never could have stopped short of its abolition.—Ask any northern abolitionist if this is not true.

But the Guardian professes to believe, that these are the very men, and the only class of men in our State, who can successfully inaugurate and complete reconstruction—that these are the very men to whom Congress has committed the work? We ask the Guardian, if we have not repeatedly said, that if Congress, or the Commanding General, would say so, or would commit to them the work, we would close our mouth at once and would not raise a finger against their pretensions. We are behind no men in the State in our anxiety for the settlement of this matter. The Congress has laid down its platform and compels our submission to it. It has the sanctity and force of law, and we abide by the law.—But does the law admit that the disfranchised men are the proper men to carry out and enforce the law? Where? When did it say so?

The Guardian, moreover, professes to believe that these are the very men who will save us from confiscation and further degradation. We pledge ourselves to entire silence and submission—to perfect quiescence, if we do not support them, the moment the Guardian will prove that proposition. The real ground of our opposition to the Holdenites, (we have none to real Union men,) is not because they are favorable to the full carrying out of the Reconstruction Acts of Congress—so far we have no objection to them; but it is to their ulterior purposes. Has the Guardian noticed one fact, that while the platform of the Holdenite meeting here proposes to be seeking peace, desires harmony and good feeling, does not say a word about confiscation, further disfranchisement and Brownlowizing the State in general, yet every primary meeting which has been held in the State, which endorses the meeting held here, breathes no other spirit but confiscation and Brownlowism! We ask our Charlotte cotemporaries, who favor this movement, to note that fact. Let them publish the proceedings of the primary meetings now appearing in the Standard and other Radical papers—let them notice the tone of their editorials, and then let them say, if those who sustain that movement are not seeking to engulph this State in the Brownlowism of Tennessee. If that is not the ulterior purpose of the Holdenites, let their primary meetings disavow it. If they are willing to stand on the Congressional platform alone, let them say so. If their object is simply to carry out the Reconstruction Acts of Congress and go no further, let them say so. Do the Guardian and the Congress approve of confiscation, further disfranchisement and Brownlowism? If so, let them say so. So long as the primary meetings, which endorse the Holden meeting, clamor for confiscation and Brownlowism, we shall oppose them. But if they will come squarely up to the platform of Congress, with nothing beyond, we shall not oppose them.

"When those who are not native born Southerners attempt to control the destinies of the South—attempt to counsel her to cut her own throat, they should be marked, and should receive the political scorn of every lover of our sunny land."—Charlotte Guardian.

The above was designed as a hit at the editor of the Newbern Commercial, who, although an Englishman, has been an American citizen for ten or fifteen years, and is now as much identified with the country as if a native. But it hits others a little more severely than the editor of the Commercial. One of the Secretaries of the late Holdenite meeting, Dr. Menninger, has been a citizen of the South only some two or three years, and we presume it is the same case with Col. Heaton, the author of the platform adopted. But we do not sympathize with the Guardian in its severity upon those who are not natives of the sunny South. The worst enemies of the South, before the war, during the war, and since the war, are those who were born in the South. Foreigners or Northern men, who identified themselves with the South, have proven themselves fifty fold better friends of the South than many of our natives.—Moreover, we admit, fully, the right of Northern men, who have settled in the South since the war, and who intend to identify themselves fully with the material interests of the South, and make it their home, to take part in the work of reconstruction and to give their counsel. When they give proof of their friendship for the South, and of their sympathies with our people in their efforts for their future posperity, and when, as we learn is the case with some in Newbern and Wilmington, they are exerting themselves to improve those cities, and promote their commercial progress, we do not object to their taking part in the political welfare of the State. But we have no sympathy with ultra native or foreign demagogues, fanatics or merely office-hunters, or persons seeking the further degradation of our people and State.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS IN VIRGINIA.

Gen. Schofield has just issued his second order, since assuming command in Virginia, under the Reconstruction Acts.

This order relates to the registration of voters, and will be read with especial interest. A board of officers is appointed to select and recommend to the commandant suitable persons to form boards of registration. The persons required to form said boards will be one registering officer for each magisterial district of a county, or ward of a city, and two, four or six for the county or city at large, so as to form, with the registering officers, two or three boards of registration for the county or city. An officer of the Freedmen's Bureau will be selected as a member of the board, and the other two persons comprising the board will be an honorably discharged soldier and a "loyal citizen." It is required that the members composing the board shall be men who "have always been loyal to the Government of the United States, and who have the confidence of all classes of citizens." The names of the gentlemen composing the "board of officers" are published in the Richmond papers.

THE SUPREME COURT AND THE SHERMAN ACT.—We publish, on our first page, an abstract, taken from the National Intelligencer, of the bill which Judge Sharkey has filed before the Supreme Court of the United States, in the name of the State of Mississippi, for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts of Congress. As we have heretofore observed, while we regard the proceeding as legal, peaceable, constitutional and American, we see no good that is at all likely to result from it. In the first place, the Court will probably disclaim jurisdiction on the ground that the question is a purely political one; and, in the second, we are in no situation to incur new hazards and excite new animosities by seeking a farther controversy with the Congress, which has proven itself victorious over both the President and the Supreme Court, hitherto.

SENATOR WILSON, of Massachusetts, has visited Virginia, and addressed the people, both in Richmond and Petersburg. He has returned to Washington and is said to have been pleased with his trip. We regret that he did not continue his trip at least as far as Raleigh. We are more pleased, than otherwise, at the determination of Republican members of Congress to visit the Southern States this spring and summer to address the people. We are anxious that they should visit the South, and remain long enough in each State to form an enlightened judgment of the real status of our people.—Bitter and uncompromising as Mr. Sumner and Mr. Stevens appear to be, we judge if they were to do so, and mingle among our people, their views would be greatly modified. We say to northern men of intelligence and integrity, that those of them, who act upon the informatios they receive from the Hunnicutts, the Hamiltons, the Brownlows and the Holdens, act upon false and prejudicial statements, which have no foundation in fairness and truth. They are false accusers of men, "whose shoes' latchet they are not worthy to unloose."

"RECORDS."—The Standard says that it will continue the record of the Sentinel. We are glad of it, and shall continue that of the Standard. We offer, in good faith, to publish the record which the Standard may make of us, if it will publish that which we will make of that paper. That's fair.

WE INVITE attention to the poem on our fourth page. It is the eloquent out-gushing of a sympathetic and saddened heart.—We take the liberty (hoping that the author will not object) of respectfully dedicating it, on its re-production, to the "Thirty-Ninth Congress."

For the Sentinel.

BRAZIL.

[CONCLUDING NUMBER.]

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The last, and perhaps to many, the most important enquiry remains, viz:

THE BEST WAY TO BRAZIL.

In pursuit of this enquiry, while in New York, I obtained letters of introduction to Senr. d' Aguiar, Brazilian Consul General, residing in that City. I was politely received, and, on stating my object was to procure information about Brazil and the subject of emigration, he referred me to the "Brazil Emigration Agency," No. 36½ Broad way. I replied that one subject of my enquiries was with regard to that office.—"Was it established by the Brazilian Government, or one of the many mock concerns, with which the City is infested, and perhaps a mere decoy of the Steamboat Company?" His answer was, in substance, that "it was a Government Establishment; that its chief, Senr. Bocayuva, a native Brazilian and a gentleman of character and standing, had been specially sent out by his government, to aid and promote emigration, and that any information given me in the office might be relied on." With this assurance I called on the "Agency." I was kindly received, and, on stating the object of my visit, all the information they possessed was placed at my disposal, and, during that and many subsequent visits, every facility was afforded to examine and take notes, and every question I could ask promptly answered. On enquiring as to the expenses and facilities of the voyage, I was handed the following contract, which the emigrant is required to sign in consideration of government assistance, viz:

"The undersigned, in consideration of the undertaking of the Imperial Emigrant Agency, hereby agrees to sail for Brazil as emigrant, upon the following conditions, which he binds himself to abide by faithfully:

1st. To purchase land for cultivation or grazing on the terms specified on the back of this agreement. These lands will be mortgaged to the Imperial Government of Brazil, as a guarantee for the advances made by that Government for transportation, which will be the sum of Fifty Dollars—Children half price.

2nd. To give satisfactory security for his debt to the Government in case he should prefer some other branch of labor than that of farming. In this case the payment must be effected within one year after arrival."

On the back of this agreement, are these important items, viz:

"Unoccupied lands of the nation will be sold at the rate of 23, 46, 70 and 90 cents per acre, (dollar equal to 1,800 reis,) payment to be made in five yearly instalments, to commence one year after possession.

"Government will pay all expenses for measure (survey), transportation to homestead, and free lodging at the port of arrival, until their departure for settlement.

"The laws in force grant many favors to emigrants, such as exemption from import duties on all objects of personal use, implements of trade, and agricultural implements and machinery.

"Emigrants will enjoy under the Constitution of the Empire all civil rights and liberties which belong to native Brazilians.

"They will enjoy liberty of conscience in religious matters.

"Emigrants may become naturalized citizens after two years residence in the Empire, and will be exempt from all military duty except the national guard, (militia of the municipality.)"

On farther enquiry, I learned that there was no compulsion on assisted emigrants to purchase government lands; he might purchase of individuals, if he preferred, but on either purchase the Government would require a mortgage to secure its advances, with six per cent. interest, till paid;—or the emigrant might refund at once the price of passage (fifty dollars in gold) and thus be quit of all obligation but gratitude for the favor. To show the materiality of this favor to emigrants, I will state that on the same steamers on which emigrants are transported through this agency, (the regular line from New York to Rio,) the price of passage for ordinary passengers, in the first cabin, is $200, and in the second cabin (in which emigrants are sent) is $100, (both in gold.) Should the emigrant prefer for himself or his family the better accommodation, under the permit of the agency, he will be charged 25 per cent. less, or $150 in the first cabin. Emigrants are also allowed to take with them, free of charge, a reasonable amount of luggage, and on their other effects there will be a deduction of 30 per cent. from the regular freights.

In still farther pursuit of information, I next went on board one of the steamers, the South America, which was, at the time, receiving her cargo. I was treated by her officers with like civility as I had met with in other officials; and, though they stated that their vessel was not "in trim" to receive visitors, yet, on mentioning my object and that I was pressed for time, every facility was at once afforded me for inspecting the accommodations. The steamers are of large class, of 2,000 to 3,000 tons burthen, and appear to be equal in comfort, safety and speed to the best sea-going steamers.—The first cabin is light, airy and well arranged with state-rooms of two berths each, comfortable and well furnished. The second cabin (or steerage, as it is sometimes called,) comprises one large room, clean, comfortable and well ventilated as circumstances will admit. The berths are arranged in tiers, three deep, and afford sleeping accommodations for over two hundred. The fare provided (free of charge) for this class of passengers, is the same as that furnished to the crew of the ship. These steamers sail on the 22nd. of each month from New York, and on the 25th. of each month from Rio. The voyage occupies 28 days, divided as follows: To St. Thomas, 1,400 miles, 7 days; to Para, 1,610 miles, 8 days; to Pernambuco, 1,090 miles, 8 days; to Bahia, 375 miles, 2 days; and to Rio, 725 miles, 3 days, (including stoppages at these cities,) and making the distance from New York to Rio, 5,200 miles. At Rio the emigrant will meet on board his ship, before he lands, an agent of the "International Emigration Society," an association established under the auspices of the government, who will facilitate his landing, the passage of his luggage and effects through the Custom House and afford him such other facilities and information as he may require. One of the agents deputed for this purpose in 1866, was a gentleman from our own country, Mr. Malone. When landed, if he prefers to economize his means for more important objects, and to accept the hospitality of the government, the emigrant will be conducted to their Lodging House, No. 173, Rua da Imperatriz (Empress street.) Here he will be provided board and lodging, free of charge, until the sailing of the steamer for the Province in which he may have chosen to locate;—should he prefer staying longer, to become better posted, &c., he will be expected to pay One Mil Reis (56 cents) per day. I was informed by one of our people who had been at this house, that it was well though plainly kept, decent, clean, and comfortable. Should our emigrant, however, feel unable to dispense with what he may consider the requirements of his gentility, he will be shown to a first class Hotel or boarding House, where he may luxuriate in the hotel comforts of a tropical city, at an expense of $2,00 to $5,00 per day, according to room. He can find such houses kept by both English and Americans. At the office of the Emigration Society, in the Merchants' Exchange No. 46, Rua d' Alfandega (Custom House Street,) the emigrant will be kindly received and find all the information he may desire, such as papers, and statistical matters and maps of the Empire and the Provinces; the location, price and surveys (as far as completed) of the public lands in various Provinces, and the best way of reaching them; the location, character and price of places for sale or rent by individuals, with or without slaves and stock; also lists of plantations owned by the government, with all particulars concerning them, and which they are willing to dispose of.—From Rio, to the Province he may select, the emigrant is sent free of expense.

Now, in reply to the inquiry at the head of this letter—"the best way to go to Brazil?"—I prefer the route from New York, and under the auspices of the Emigrant Agency, on several accounts. To many, formerly in good circumstances, the idea of going as an emigrant is unpleasant, and recent circumstances have imbued, while they have nearly crushed, the pride of our people. But they have but little means, and the chief difficulty in the way of emigrating is the actual want of funds to meet the expenses of the trip, and the small amount necessary to start a new home. This is known to the government of Brazil, and her attempt is to provide against it. She is anxious to secure the knowledge, skill and industry of our cotton, tobacco and sugar planters, who may think that there may be a better country, to them, than their own, radicalized. By accepting her offer, the emigrant will require to use no portion of his little means, except the cost of transportation from his home to New York. On his arrival in Brazil, he is untrammelled by any engagement to any organization to settle in any particular location, whether he may like it or not, on acquaintance; and the only obligation resting upon him is to be have himself like a decent citizen, and go to work to establish a home for himself and family, and to acquire the means to refund the price of his passage to the government, for which he has a credit of six years. The Empire is before him, where to choose, and every reasonable facility will be furnished him for examination. In connection with our "Emigrant Associations," the lowest price of passage that I have seen stated, is $130 in currency, which must be prepaid.—In this connection, he will of course be expected to settle on the lands selected by his "Association." The leaders of these Associations may possibly not be circumspect at all times in admitting associates, and it may happen that the settlement will be troubled in the same way that Texas was in its early days. At least, I would prefer looking before locating.

This liberality of the Imperial Government will appear astonishing, if not incredible to many. I have, however, seen it in its practical operation and know that it is exercised as I have stated. While seated in the office, studying the subject of Brazil, I have seen the old man and the young man, once affluent in this world's goods, now poor in everything but their brave hearts and proud memories of the past, sign the contract recited above and receive a permit for a free passage; and I have shaken them by the hand when they started on board their ship, with their wives and little ones, and felt that they were but beginning the passage of the Red Sea of their bondage, and trusted that God would yet bless our people in a land of liberty and peace. But a moment's reflection will convince the sceptical that, although a most liberal, it is a most wise policy. The almost unlimited capacity of Brazil for the production of cotton has been long known. In 1849, a southern member of Mr. Fillmore's cabinet despatched Herndon and Gibbon to examine the valley of the Amazon, and report on its adaptation to the growth of cotton; and, in the meantime, he took initiatory steps to effect an arrangement with Brazil, under which our people could emigrate to that valley, carrying with them their slaves, and such protection of their own government and laws as might be deemed expedient. This arrangement would have led to an outlet for our fast increasing slave population, as well as immense benefit to the commerce of the United States, and perhaps have saved us the lamentable spectacle of to-day, when the constitution of our country has become the scoff and derision of the very high-priests of depravity in high places. But this wise movement of our sagacious statesman, tho' approved by Mr. Fillmore, was frustrated by a northern member of the same cabinet, instigated by the influence of motives best known to himself. The war of secession has swept over us, leaving our people impoverished, our system of labor destroyed, and the prospect of the successful cultivation of cotton in these states forever blighted. Brazil, with an area as well or better adapted to cotton, and more than ten times as large as the cotton region of the United States, is now the only country, except Cuba, left with that system of labor suited to its profitable culture. Our people peculiarly understand the method of making that species of labor most available, and, at the same time, of preserving and fostering its supply; neither of which is so well understood by the Brazilians. Brazil offers to advance the price of passage of our cotton, tobacco and sugar planters and their families, ($50,00 each,) say $300,00 each family. In two or three years our planter has bought or opened a plantation on which, after his method, with one mule and plow, he has produced as much cotton as his Brazilian neighbor produces with twenty badly managed negroes with their clumsy hoes. His neighbor learns the method and his negroes are taught to hold the plow as well as hoe; the production of cotton &c., advances in geometrical progression; negroes are found to be valuable, and their price rises from five to fifteen hundred dollars, while they are better cared for and increase with greater rapidity; in the life time of the emigrant Brazil has become what we were—the great cotton country of the world. Has Brazil not made a good investment? And, when we look into the distant future, when the poor, despised Confederate shall have escaped from the Egyptian, what a spectacle of glory, prosperity and power rises on the prophetic imagination!

In further illustration of the good faith displayed in this matter, I will state another fact that fell incidentally under my observation. In last January, one hundred and fifty organized emigrants sailed from Galveston, Texas, for Brazil. They were wrecked on the coast of Cuba. One of their number came to New York to obtain assistance, and I met him several times in the Agency Office, and learned from him much about Brazil, as he had spent some months there. Within a week after his arrival at New York a steamer had been chartered by the Agent, placed under his direction, and he had sailed for Cuba to take up his shipwrecked companions and proceed to Brazil. The price of the charter was advanced by the Agent, to be refunded by the emigrants, in accordance with the stipulations recited above.

I have thus, Messrs. Editors, given a sketch of such information about Brazil as I thought would be useful to many of our people. It has been hasty and brief, for the subject is a large one, and drawn up as I could find a leisure hour; but, withal, I fear it has been a burthen to your columns. As I have stated, I have no interest whatever in the subject, further than my personal feelings and a desire to benefit those who feel as I do, that this country is no longer fit for them, or they for the country. They and I would thank you for the publication.

As I have intimated, it is hard, very hard, to leave "the old home," around which cluster the hallowed associations and memories of childhood! But how many, even should Congress spare us the gratuitous and hideous mockery of confiscation, will, before long, be compelled, by the force of debt and taxes, to quit the dear "old place?" Love of home and devoted patriotism have been, through all time, prominent characteristics of our people, and many will find it more than they can bear to sever the ties that bind them to the old State. They will still linger and look on while the stranger is seated by their hearth-stone of their infancy. Others, gathering up the remnants and leaving "the dead to bury their dead," will go forth prepared to endure, with fortitude, patience and perseverance, the hardships, trials and discouragements of the exile, in the hope to build up new homes for themselves and their children, in a better clime and under brighter skies. In either hemisphere and under whatever fortune, I trust that, as a people, we shall prove true to our race and lineage.

Yours, W.

A NEW USE FOR CALOMEL.—Under this head we see in a large number of our exchanges that a gentleman in Saratoga County, New York, has lately "doctored" a sickly apple tree, with most excellent results, by boring a hole in the body of the tree and inserting a few grains of calomel into it, and we notice it because this same experiment we saw performed in our city, some twenty-five years ago, by the late E. W. Bonnetheau, Esq., on an unhealthy peach tree, which recovered, and afterwards bore most excellent fruit. Mr. B., who at that time was much devoted to horticulture, endeavored to impress upon his friends the use of this medicine as a most effective one on diseased fruit trees.—Charleston News.

SALES AND SHIPMENTS OF CORN.—Yesterday over 4,000 bushels of corn changed hands in this city; and during the week more than 10,000 bushels were disposed of.

Messrs. Whittord, Dill & Co., are now shipping 16,000 bushels to Savannah, the vessel now loading.

It may not be generally known that the railroad freight on corn, from Newbern to Wilmington, is but ten cents per bushel. Shippers should remember this. Vessels carrying corn from Hyde and adjoining counties to Wilmington have to go to sea and the voyage is attended with much danger. A vessel was lost recently in making this trip. Whereas vessels coming from Hyde and other neighboring counties to Newbern remain inside all the time. Speed, safety, and economy recommend the railroad route via Newbern.—Newbern Commercial

ASTROLOGY.
THE WORLD ASTONISHED
AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS
MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,
Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the magic stars that overcome or predominate in the predestination—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. Inferences of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

NOTICE.

OFFICE SEABOARD & ROANOKE R. R. CO.,
Portsmouth, Va., March 23d, 1867.

It has been understood by the officers in charge of transportation via the Seaboard Inland Freight Route, that letters addressed to the Railroad Agent at Portsmouth, on the subject of freights, are unanswered, and that in consequence, causes of delay are not explained, and claims for losses and damage unsettled, and as the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company, who are the forwarding agents for the line, are satisfied that these causes of complaint are not due to their Agents, but to the inaccuracy of the mails, in order to test this subject, the Manager of the Seaboard Road requests that whenever persons have written to the undersigned Agent of the Seaboard Road, and after waiting a reasonable time for a reply, have not received it, that they will address him a letter enclosing a duplicate of the letter they had previously addressed to the agent. If this is complied with, and the Manager of the Seaboard Road receives the letter, he gives assurance that it shall be promptly investigated and replied to.

Andrew J. Polk, Esq., of Tennessee, formerly of this city, and a son of Col. Wm. Polk, died recently at Vevey, Switzerland, whither he had gone for the improvement of his health.

Dr. Crawford, Dentist, wishes notice given to the public that he will be absent, in fulfilment of professional engagements, until Monday next, 15th. inst.

"Square and Compass."—This is the title of a new Weekly Masonic Journal, to be published in this city, by J. G. Hester, Esq. The first number will be issued in the course of a week, beginning with an edition of eleven hundred copies. Mr. Hester will doubtless make an acceptable journal to the fraternity, and we wish him the success which we are sure he deserves.

THE PRIZE GOODS.

Messrs. Editors:—Every lover of art will enjoy a visit to the Messrs. McKimmon's, to see the handsome articles, drawn by the North Carolina members at St. Louis. Every one is ready to ask, what shall be done with them? If they were drawn for North Carolina, of course North Carolina authorities will manage the disposal of them. But since they are North Carolina prizes, would it not be appropriate to present them to some of North Carolina's own sons. No man will gain any reputation for originality, who eulogizes General Robert E. Lee.—The whole world has long since conceded that he is good, brave, wise, noble. But has North Carolina to go from home to seek some one to honor, with her own State goods? I propose to compliment one of our noble fellow citizens at home, with the present of the handsome dressing case; and will be one of fifteen hundred others to give a dollar each, to purchase this beautiful case for Gov. Vance or Gov. Graham; and some of these days, when the nation proposes to compliment Gen. Robert E. Lee, we will join heart and hand in a suitable tender of our admiration.

A NORTH CAROLINIAN.

The Right Grit.—A young man, a native of North Carolina, recently brought a letter of introduction to a citizen of Galveston, which contained a request that aid should be rendered the young man in getting into business. During the conversation the fact was drawn out that the young man had worked his passage from New York. He was not ashamed to work at anything that was honest. A man who helps himself will always have friends. His new Galveston friend at once made a plan for him, unless he could do better. Willing to take hold of anything that was honorable, it was not long before a situation was offered, affording a fair salary and opening a good prospect for the future. Here is the secret of success which the young men of our country who are thrown upon their resources should seek to master. Don't wait for fortune to come. Hunt her up. Take off your gloves, your coat, and as a wrestler, warm for the contest, engage in the strife for success, and you will find many who will acknowledge your claims, and who will find it to their interest to promote yours.

We clip the above from the Galveston Tri-Weekly Advertiser. The young man alluded to is a native of this city, and we are proud of his record. For many a long month here he worked for less than it took to board him, yet all the time looking out for a better chance. At length, despairing of doing anything here, he determined to work his way into business, if the world could furnish him employment. He told us of his purpose and we encouraged him in it, assuring him that such determination and energy would insure success. He went to Wilmington, and, finding no employment, he went on board of a vessel and worked his passage to the West Indies and back. A friend offered him passage to Baltimore, and he at once accepted, went to Baltimore, and, finding no employment, he went to New York. Failing there, he took steamer to Galveston, and soon got employment. His energy has been rewarded, and we expect to hear, when W. H. H. Ramsay has become a man in years, he will have become a man in all other respects. Boys, there is nothing like a determination to succeed. Remember where there is a will, there is a way.

DEATH OF HON. D. F. CALDWELL.

We announce, with pain, the death of this distinguished man, which occurred in this City on Thursday, in the 76th year of his age. Judge Caldwell was a native of Iredell County, where he was born in 1792. He was educated at Chapel Hill, and read law with the late Hon. Archibald Henderson, in the profession of which he early rose to eminence. He first entered public life as a member of the House of Commons from Iredell County in the year 1816. He subsequently removed to Salisbury, and represented Rowan County in the Senate of our State Legislature in the years 1829, '30 and '31. He was speaker of the Senate in 1829. In 1844 he was elected one of the Judges of the Superior Courts of Law and Equity, which position he held, with honor to himself and profit to the State, until he resigned it in 1859.

Judge Caldwell was a man of no ordinary intellectual powers. As a lawyer he was for many years the acknowledged head of the bar of the Circuit in which he practiced. As a Judge few men have inspired more good will and respect among the legal profession, and none ever inspired a higer reverence for the administration of Justice among the common people. He was a man of unbending integrity, a high sense of honor, and though he may have had to contend with strong prejudices, a kind and generous heart.

It was not our good fortune to have known him very long or very intimately, and we have not the material at hand to write any very extended notice of him to day; but we trust such notice will be prepared by some of his old associates at the bar, whose personal reminiscences of him would prove of the highest interest. It is true that he belonged to a generation of lawyers which has nearly passed away, but we have in our mind one of his survivors who is eminently qualified to furnish a sketch of his life and character, and we hope that he will undertake the task.—Old North State.

Military Construction.—We have official information that on yesterday Colonel Frank, the military commandant of this post, was applied to by some friends of Nicholas Carr, the prisoner sentenced to be branded by the Court, to telegraph to Gen. Sickles, commanding this military district, in order to ascertain whether or not branding was construed as maiming, under the late order prohibiting the infliction of whipping, maiming or otherwise disabling the person as a punishment. Col. Frank declined taking any action in the matter, unless applied to by counsel for the prisoner.

Shortly afterwards, we understand, this same request was made to Col. Frank, by one of the counsel for the defence.

A telegram was then dispatched to Gen. Sickles to this effect, and in the afternoon his House, Judge Meares, received acommunication from Col. Frank, stating that General Sickles had been heard from in this case, and that branding had been construed as maiming. Col. Frank, in accordance with this information, requested that Judge Meares would inflict some other punishment upon the prisoner Carr. The action of the Judge will be shown to day, when the prisoner is brought into Court.

P. S. Since writing the above we have received the following copy of the official order from Col. Frank, served on the Sheriff of this county:

H'DQ'S Post of Wilmington, N. C., April 5th, 1867.

Mr. S. R. Bunting, Sheriff of New Hanover County, Wilmington, N. C.

Sir: I am instructed by the Major General commanding, that branding is prohibited by act of Congress and orders from department headquarters, and am ordered to enforce it. You will not therefore carry the sentence of Nicholas Carr into effect.

Very respectfully your obedient servant,

B. F. Frank,
Bvt. Lt. Col. and Capt. 8th Infantry,
Commanding Post.

—Wil. Journal.

Since the foregoing was in type, we learn that Judge Meares has changed the sentence of the Court to a fine of $2,000 and imprisonment for twelve months.

THE POWERS OF THE DISTRICT COMMANDERS.

A Washington telegram to the Sun gives a very clear statement of the position of the President and his Cabinet upon the question of the powers of the district commanders. We think there can be no sort of doubt that the President must decide as herein indicated. There must be some respect for law exacted:

"Mr. Stanbery has not written, nor has he been requested to write, an opinion on the subject, nor has General Sheridan ever sent a line to the President with reference to the removal of the Louisiana officers.

The Secretary of War a few days ago sent a message to General Sheridan, requesting a report of his action and the cause of the removals, but the report has not been received, though momentarily expected.

The subject has been informally discussed in the Cabinet, and it was understood to be the sense of the administration that the military commanders are not warranted under the reconstruction act in removing civil officers, unless they are in some way obstructing the execution of the law, and that when such removals have been made, even upon good and sufficient grounds, the law does not authorize a military commander to appoint their successors. He can assign military officers to perform official duties which civil officers fail to execute, but he cannot appoint attorney generals and other State officers. This is merely the informal conclusion of the administration, but the subject has not been regularly before the Cabinet nor referred to the Attorney General."

Ex-Governor Wm. B. Campbell, of Tennessee, who was a firm Union man throughout the war, and a member of the last Congress, has written a letter, in which, among other things, he says:

"I am decidedly of the opinion that the Radicals have already destroyed our free form of government, and have erected upon its ruin a despotism constituted of a majority of Congress, which has virtually set aside the two co ordinate departments of the government—the Executive and the Judiciary; and are now engaged in organizing and drawing around them a military organization which is to maintain their sway, and secure the continuance of their party supremacy in Congress."

"Two Men Hanged by a Mob.—Cincinnati, April 1.—A special dispatch to the Commercial says two men, named Brooks and Tally, charged with the murder of an old lady, at Clear Springs, Jackson county, Indiana, some months ago, were taken from the Brownstown, Jackson county, Indiana, jail, on Saturday night, by a mob and hanged."

What a mercy that this didn't happen in "District No. 2!"

Monday Morning Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, April 7.

Returns from Tallahassee, Fla., show that over eight thousand acres of land have been located under the homestead law, which limits the entries to sixty acres.

The White House was crowded yesterday. Attorney General Stanberry and Post Master General Randall were among the visitors.

The National Bank Circulation is nearly $299,000,000.

The disbursements of the War, Navy and Interior Departments for the week is $3,250,000.

The Internal Revenue receipts for the week is $5,800,000.

The Senate open proceedings are unimportant.

The resolution expelling Mr. Saulsbury was indefinitely postponed.

General Solomon Meredith, of Indiana has, been rejected by the Senate, as Surveyor General of Montana.

The official papers, three in Louisiana and two in each of the other unrepresented States, are authorized, by a special act, to publish the laws of the thirty-ninth Congress. It will amount to about twelve hundred dollars. The law further provides that the War, Navy, Executive and Federal Judiciary advertisements shall be published in those papers only.

Mr. Stevens has been quite ill since Wednesday, of disease of the heart.

Facts regarding Russian America have been developed, within the last week, impressing the Senate more favorably towards the ratification of the treaty. It is believed that the majority of the committee on Foreign relations favor its ratification.

OHIO SUFFRAGE.

Columbus, Ohio, April 7.

The Senate has concurred in the House amendments to the suffrage bill, extending the franchise to all male citizens, except rebels and deserters.

REVOLUTION IN HAYTI.

Boston, April 6.

A private letter from Port au Prince of March 14, confirms the reported revolution in Hayti.—President Geffrard has resigned and left the Island in a French man of war.

DEATH OF AN EX. U. S. SENATOR.

Portland, April 6.

Hon. George Evans, formerly U. S. Senator from Maine, and for many years chairman of the committee on Commerce, died to-day, aged 70 years.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN CHATTANOOGA.

Chattanooga, April 7.

A Conservative Union county Convention was held here last night to elect delegates to a State Convention without distinction of color or race.—It was the largest and most enthusiastic meeting ever held here. There were about 500 colored and 300 whites present. The officers and speakers were all original Union men.

Just before adjournment, they were addressed by William Fletcher, a leading colored citizen, who said if he was fit to vote, he was fit to sit on the jury and to hold office. He had been told the conservatives were hostile to the colored man.—What he had heard to-night had set him to thinking. He was going to read, study and vote for himself. The radicals say that they are going to carry all the States; they would miss him. He was greeted with applause.

The resolutions favor the return to the Constitution, oppose Brownlow, favor a more liberal school law, and the economical administration of the Government.

MARKETS AND FINANCIAL.

New York, April 6, P. M.

Cotton steady. Sales 1800 bales: middling up lands 28.

Flour active, State $10@$13,20. Wheat 5@10 better.

Baltimore, April 6.

Cotton dull. Middling uplands 27.

Wilmington, April 26. Rosin $3@$3.

Cotton held at 26. Rosin $3@$3.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, April 8

Gen. Rosecranz is mentioned in connection with the Austrian ministry.

Unprecedented reticence is observed in official circles, regarding past and future removals by the District Commanders. The question is regarded as a very nice one.

It is the general impression that the Supreme Court will not entertain the Mississippi complaint.

The impeachment investigations are suspended till May.

Thos. L. Crittenden is confirmed a Brev. Brig. General.

Surratt's trial is set for the present term. His conviction is considered improbable on account of the awkward indictment and loosely jointed circumstances.

Georgia, through Charles O'Connor, of New York, and Judge Black, of Pennsylvania, will file on Friday a petition in the Supreme Court, similar to that of Mississippi.

RUMORED WAR IN EUROPE.

New York, April 8.

There are rumors on the street of war between France and Prussia, and a great decline of 5-20's on the other side.

MARKETS.

New York, April 8.

Gold extremely active; owing to the European news. Opened at $1,33¾, sold as high as $1,36 and closed at $1,35¼.

Cotton quiet, at 28 for uplands.

Liverpool, April 8.

Cotton easier, with still further decline. Sales will probably reach 7,000 bales. Uplands 12¼.—Orleans 13.

Bennett's Last.—The following is the latest counsel which the Herald gives the South:

"We advise the Southerners to carry out the ideas of the radicals to the fullest extent and push the revolution these radicals inaugurated to the utmost limit. In doing this they should send a large delegation of negroes to Congress."

Seed for the Southern States.—Congress having appropriated $50,000 to purchase seeds to be distributed throughout the Southern States, Hon. Isaac Newton, Commissioner of Agriculture, is now making preparations to distribute them, and during the present month a large portion will be forwarded to farmers and planters in the South. It is the desire of Mr. Newton that the farmers shall receive the seeds as soon as possible, in order that they may be immediately used.

It is stated in some of our exchanges that the Rev. C. F. Deems, editor and proprietor of the Watchman, while it had an existence in New York, has been offered a professorship in California at $2 500 per annum. He says he is in the hands of the Episcopacy—Methodist Episcopal Church, South—and will go or stay, as directed.

Senator Wilson Returns to Washington.—Senator Wilson went to Washington by the Fredericksburg train on Thursday night. He will return, however, to Virginia, and we presume speak at all the important points in the State. He expressed himself pleased with the courtesy with which he was treated by the citizens of Richmond and Petersburg.—Rich. Whig.

SPECIAL NOTICES

KNOW THY DESTINY.

Madame E. F. Thornton, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychometrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communications sacredly confidential. Address in confidence, Madame E. F. Thornton, P. O. Box 223, Hudson, N. Y.

DRY GOODS.

A CARD.

Bear in mind the following facts:

1st. Our House is the oldest Dry Goods Establishment in the city,—our Junior member having been in the business nearly 20 years.

2nd. We keep one of our firm constantly in the Northern markets.

3rd. He is well posted as to quality and price of goods.

4th. We buy for cash: and buy goods lower by doing so.

5th. We know the wants of our customers and our goods please them.

6th. Our motto is "quick sales and small profits."

7th. We do a live business—don't keep any dead stock on hand.

8th. It is a notorious fact that we buy the best quality of goods: and sell them at low prices.

9th. We attend strictly to our business.

10th. We sell goods for cash.

11th. If we make anything, it is spent in the improvement of our city.

12th. We don't keep any groceries.

Are not the above 12 good reasons why you should buy your Dry Goods of us?

We had hoped to have carried our beautiful Spring stock to our new Store, but owing to the bad weather, have been delayed. We will sell it out at our old stand.

We can truthfully say that a handsomer stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER DRY GOODS

has never been offered in this market.

GRAND CHARITABLE

PRESENTATION CONCERT,

IN AID OF THE Southern Orphan Association.

—OF—

Incorporated by the Legislature of Virginia, January 30, 1867,

TO BE GIVEN AT THE

MARYLAND INSTITUTE

BALTIMORE,

APRIL 30th. 1867

THE PROFITS OF THIS CONCERT WILL BE GIVEN TO THE SOUTHERN ORPHANS' ASSOCIATION, TO THE SUBJOINED ADDRESS, FROM THE OFFICERS OF WHICH, WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC:

We, the Officers of the Southern Orphans' Association, for the maintenance and education of the destitute orphans of deceased Southern soldiers and sailors, earnestly solicit the sympathy and co-operation in our

Grand Presentation Concert,

Of all who desire to see the

"HOME AND SCHOOL"

enabled to receive and care for all the needy ones who seek its shelter and protection.

Thanking our friends for their past contributions and assistance, we again appeal to them to help us in a more extensive enterprise. It is the design of this Association to erect a for the orphans of the South, both male and female, on an extensive scale, in the city of Richmond, Virginia. As an inducement to have the building located there, the Common Council of that city have guaranteed a sufficient lot of land, in an elevated and healthful location, and will increase the quantity of land if needed.

It is with a confident hope in a favorable response to this appeal to a public which has never yet failed to sustain a charitable institution, that we have entered into an arrangement with Messrs. L. T. Palmer & Co., No. 13 Holliday street, Baltimore, to organize a Grand Musical Presentation Concert for its benefit, and earnestly solicit the kindly aid and patronage of the public to ensure its success.

(Signed)

Mrs. J. L. HAMMOND, President.
Mrs. Dr. J. B. BEAN, Vice President.
Mrs. E. A. F. MEARS, Treasurer.
Mrs. Dr. A. G. KIMBERLY, Cor. Secretary.
Mr. J. H. SCHIERS, Recording Secretary.
Dr. A. G. KIMBERLY, Financial Secretary.
H. C. DALLAM, Esq., Counsellor.

Baltimore, Feb. —, 1867.

Trustees.

Mrs. E. A. F. MEARS, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. J. H. SCHIERS, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. W. S. BOSTOCK, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. A. HAWKINS, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. Dr. A. G. KIMBERLY, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. CHAS. McCUBBIN, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. Hon. JAS. LYONS, Richmond, Va.
Mrs. JAS. THOMAS, Richmond, Va.
Mrs. THOS. BRANCH, Richmond, Va.

It may seem unnecessary to add a single word to the above address, but calls upon the Institution have been so numerous and pressing, and the struggle through which it is now passing to widen the circle of its charities is of such an arduous nature, that the management cannot too strongly urge upon the

HUMANE AND PATHETIC

everywhere, an active participation in this additional attempt to alleviate the sad condition of great numbers of helpless children, rendered thus by the terrible war through which we have passed. And, assuredly, whatever may have been the relative political views of ladies and gentlemen heretofore, all must agree that the children reduced to, could not, by any possibility, have had any agency in bringing about their present

DEPLORABLE AND DESTITUTE CONDITION, and are suitable objects for the charity of all persons of whatever shade of political opinion. The

"HOME AND SCHOOL"

which they now more particularly seek to establish and endow, will be of inestimable benefit by providing not only food and raiment for these helpless ones, but likewise solid and thorough education, thus qualifying them for Future Usefulness to Society at Large.

In order that this appeal may be effectual in enlisting the active interest and co-operation of all classes of persons everywhere, we have concluded to issue for the Grand Presentation Musical Concert,

500,000 tickets at the nominal price of $1 each—a single ticket entitling the purchaser to a gift—there being one gift to every ticket. The gifts are as follows:

FERTILIZERS

FOR SPRING CROPS.

We beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 220 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which was, for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

THE SENTINEL.

MONDAY, APRIL 8, 1867.

JOHN C. CALHOUN.

EDWARD WARREN, EDITOR OF THE STANDARD.

The voyager on the Southern main
Views with rapt awe the hallowed sign
Which nightly flames "beyond the line,"
Nor deems the labor all in vain
Which brings him to the long sought shrine.

The warrior toiling, in fair ', by flood,
Walk in its light when the day is gone,
And hail it in its light abode
Best relics of the absent sun.

In all their devious wanderings,
Prov dowy ore through midnight's reign,
It guides them till the morning's wings
Shed sunlight o'er the earth again.

What if that cross its front should veil
And, darkling, sink in night's embrace?
No other stars nor sun could fill
Or share its wondrous dwelling place.

Star of the South, 'twas thus with thee!
To thee all eyes and hearts were turned,
As round thy path from plain to sea
The glory of thy greatness burned.

Millions were drawn to thee, and bound
By mind's high mastery; millions hailed
In thee a GUIDING STAR, nor found
A ray in thee that waned or failed.

Fix'd as the sun which hangs in Heaven,
Firm as the earth it shines upon;
Pure as the snow by light winds driven
Wert thou, Columbia's honored son!

No night's embrace, for thee nor pall
But such as mortal change has wrought;
Thou livest still, in mind—in all
That breathes, or speaks, or lives in thought.

Star of the South! thy beams are here—
HERE IN THIS HEART that weeps thy loss.
Though hidden, thou art still a sphere
Serene, refined from earthly dross,
Eternal and intensely clear!

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established; Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,
President of the Senate pro tem.

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United states against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take the obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

FERTILIZERS.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

TRADE MARK

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits. Pamphlets containing well-know Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

VALUABLE LANDS AND MILLS FOR SALE.

NOT being able to attend to my Mills and Farms on Little River, I now offer them for sale. They are located 3 miles above Lowell Cotton Factory and 5 miles from the N. C. R. Road in Johnston County. The said tract contains about well timbered land, containing enough open land for a 3 or 4 horse Farm, with a comfortable dwelling and all necessary out houses requisite to a farm.

800 ACRES

The soil is well adapted to the growth of Cotton and Corn, with ample facility for improvement.

Also, connected with said farm a GRIST MILL, with two pair of stones, and a SAW MILL, all in running order, with water power enough to drive a Cotton Factory!

Also, one other tract, lying on Buffalo Swamp, containing about 500 acres cleared land, enough for a 5 or 6 horse Farm, with low grounds drained by a twenty feet canal, with all other ditches necessary. Will make, if well cultivated, 400 or 500 barrells of corn. The upland is well adapted to the growth of Cotton and Corn, with every facility for improvement.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required.—In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages.—This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States.—Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.
